Throughout our high school years we 1971 seniors have carried the distinction of being the smallest class in the school.

As freshmen we were so shy and nonaggressive that our class was unable to provide a skit for homecoming. From this timid beginning we advanced to become the participants of the most controversial Senior Sneak in Meridian's history.

This enthusiasm first showed itself in our junior year when we were consistently able to win the yelling competition during pep assemblies. Our class also won the contests for the biggest bonfire and the best homecoming posters, and our junior boys were the largest group participating in sports. Financially we were just as successful, making more money on both the Junior What Not and the Senior Play than had any other class.

By the time our senior year arrived, we had learned that by working together we could accomplish many things. Applying this knowledge to our activities, such as the Senior Sneak and the Senior Play, we made our final year together a successful one and proved that strength comes in unity and not necessarily in numbers.

Juniors

The junior year 1970-71 was a time for learning the role of leadership under the guidance of president Mike Rhea, vice president Jim Lovatt, secretary-treasurer Kim Lundstrom, class representative Larry Chervenock and our advisor Mrs. Kenoyer.

Well represented in every club and organization in Meridian our junior class members held many high ranking offices in school activities. Junior athletes also helped our team on to victory with the same spirit and enthusiasm we had shown in our previous years at Meridian.

With springtime came our successful Junior-Senior Prom. The Junior What Not provided the funds for the Junior-Senior Banquet when the juniors honored the class of "71." Our junior year was now at an end and we awaited our time of glory—our senior year.

Some do; some don't?

I bet Viki enjoys this class!

Hubba-hubba, ding-dong!

Sophomores

For the Sophomores the year was a time full of involvement. As they were no longer a part of the junior high, they could participate in many of the high school activities. This year's officers were president, Lee Stockton; vice president, Jerry Parker; Secretary-treasurer, Ann Jansen; class representative, Kim Matter; advisors, Mrs. Petersen and Mr. Jabbora.

What now?

Avoid the rush - leave early.

Good-bye Barb

Freshmen

Our freshman year was a time for beginnings - participating in various clubs and activities for the first time, taking new courses, and learning to handle freedom with responsibility. Leading us in these endeavors were our class officers: Vern Granahan, president; Kevin Goertz, vice president; Debbie Larsen, secretary; Gary Wasel, treasurer; and Steve Rietman, student council representative. Our class advisors were Mrs. Everett and Mr. Holland.

Goody-I get to flunk another one.

Someone's at the door Mrs. Everett.

Let's not pose or anything.

If the food's bad—throw it.

I've been HIT!!!

She's not in there Art!

Brian always did get a kick out of football.

Another one for Vern.

Not bad for a cracker-jack prize!

How many girls you got in there, guys?

Senior Play

For their Senior Play, members of the Class of 1971 presented a romantic comedy called "The Dating Machine." This year's seniors had a knack for turning even the smallest events, such as play rehearsals, into special occasions, and their enthusiasm for the Senior Play was rewarded with a large turnout and profit, to say nothing of the fun they all had.

Advisor: Mr. John Kuhl

Big M

The school year 1970-71 was a great year for Big M Club under the leadership of Albert Larsen who headed the Lettermen with the help of vice president-Vern Carlson, secretary-Mike Rhea, representative-Art Miles and advisor-Mr. Grady. The 25 Big M members helped out in many school activities and raised money for projects by holding carwashes.

Cheerleaders: Pat Rhea, Cheri Schow, Kim Lundstrom, Elaine Chasteen, Kim Matter.

The 1970-71 cheerleaders started their year by attending cheercamp at Ellensburg, Washington, where they were taught many new ideas and techniques to do the best job possible. While promoting spirit at games, pep assemblies, rooter buses, and extra-curricular activities they were always full of enthusiasm for their team and school.

Pep Club

Meridian's Pep Club is a relatively small organization, but this year's members made up for that factor with a great deal of pride, energy and enthusiasm.

Pep Club was successful in sponsoring the basketball homecoming dance and the spring athletic banquet, but its most important function was attending sports events and offering the Trojans encouragement and support.

Leading the club in all of these endeavors were its officers: Nancy Meyer, president; Darlene Montgomery, vice-president; Jane Stephens, secretary; Linne Pullar, treasurer; and Ruth Lindgren, Brigit Colman and Linne Pullar, points chairmen. Mrs. Petersen served as advisor.

Row 1; Paula Lloyd, Linne Pullar, Linda Nelson, Bev Manthey, Lisa Ferguson, Sandy Matheson, Ardis Weiland, Nancy Meyer, Darlene Montogomery. Football 1970

The Meridian Trojans quickly established themselves as one of the toughest teams in the county. Performing many upsets, the Trojans tied for second place in a strong Whatcom County League. Coaches and students agreed that this was one of Meridian's finest seasons.

Mr. Abbott had the help of three assistant coaches: Mr. Barber, Mr. Jabbora, and Mr. Taubenheim. Mr. Barber also coached the junior varsity team, which included freshmen for the first time.
